As in the “Notice Concerning the Introduction of the Interim Dividend System, a Stock Split, and Partial Changes in the Articles of Incorporation Associated with Them” issued on May 14, 2024, we announced that we would refer a proposal regarding partial changes in the articles of incorporation to the 89th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders to be held on June 27, 2024. In the meeting of the Board of Directors held today, we resolved to refer a proposal regarding partial changes in the articles of incorporation for setting a new business purpose to the same general meeting of shareholders.

This is to set a new provision related to non-destructive inspection services in line with the expansion of the business scope of Company subsidiaries.

The establishment of this business purpose shall be subject to a proposal regarding changes in the articles of incorporation associated with this being approved and passed at the 89th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders to be held on June 27, 2024.

(1) Reason for the changes

To set a new item related to non-destructive inspection services as a business purpose.

Changes made are as follows:
